Gymnastics Success!

I am pleased to inform you that Alice C, who is in Year 3 in Miss Maddocks' class, was awarded a silver in floor, beam and vault and a bronze on the bars in a recent gymnastics competition. Alice has progressed after lots of hard work over a 3 year period to Level 4 in her gymnastics. Well done Alice, this is amazing news!

Gymnastics Success!

I am pleased to report that Maggie C, who is in Year 1 in Miss Wilson's class, recently participated in her first gymnastics competition and performed to a very high standard. Maggie was confident and focused throughout and made everyone very proud. Well done Maggie, this is amazing news!

Swimming Success!

I am pleased to report that Eleanor B, who is in Year 1 in Miss Buchan's class, took part in a distance badge session recently as part of her swimming club. Despite being the youngest person taking part, Eleanor kept swimming and persevering and managed to swim 24 lengths, gaining her 600 metre badge! Well done Eleanor, this is amazing news!

Football News!

Last week, our boys' football team travelled to Kingsmead to take part in two friendly games of football against two other local primary schools. Miss Cattell wrote, 'Our boys were in control, showed determination and resilience and it most certainly paid off! We managed to secure both wins with scores of:

Five Ways 2 – 1 Hazelslade

Five Ways 4 – 0 Heath Hayes

Our boys certainly made our school proud with their excellent sportsmanship both on and off the pitch! Well done boys!
